

Do not change the Indiana No Call list. My phone is quiet and I like it. If I want those who have an on going established business relationship to call me I will take them off the no call list.